Biography

Mr. Leavitt represents and advises small and mid-size businesses in employment, landlord/tenant, and general litigation matters. He often serves as a de facto general counsel to business owners, providing practical advice on a variety of legal issues. His appreciation for small businesses is due, in part, to his own family's entrepreneurialism. Mr. Leavitt's father, brother, and wife are all small business owners, providing him with first-hand knowledge of the issues small businesses face, enabling him to better provide clients with real-world and cost-effective solutions. Mr. Leavitt also serves as Chair of the firm's food, beverage, and hospitality practice.

Having represented hundreds of businesses and commercial property owners in accessibility lawsuits, Mr. Leavitt is also one of Arizona's most experienced Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) defense attorneys. His clients range from billion dollar publicly-traded companies to local mom-and-pop businesses.
